

Hum Sub Cary Diwali 2016

Cultural Program Guidelines

Aim

- Display India's diverse and splendid heritage to the community.
- Promote family oriented events which are geared towards diversity to build a stronger foundation for our youth.

Theme

Yatra - Journey in Time

The theme of Cary Diwali 2016 is "Yatra" – Journey in Time

Unveiling yet another chapter in the celebration of India's rich heritage and culture, Cary Diwali 2016 promises to take you on an unforgettable journey. Join us for Yatra- A Journey in Time as we unfold a wondrous civilization that is as ancient as it is modern. Share in the intricacies of our dance forms, the exuberance of our music, the delectability of our cuisine, the philosophy of our yoga, and the creativity of our textiles. Together, let us travel back in time.

If you are looking for a platform to showcase your talents, sign up for Cary Diwali 2016!!

Cultural Committee

The Committee is responsible for selecting items that meet the objectives listed above while conforming to the theme, and also for ensuring quality and compliance with guidelines. The Committee is available to advise and assist as needed. For assistance, please contact Committee members at cultural_programs@humsub.net

Committee members:

Jashi Abhirajan
Malti Jain
Runa Shree
Kaajal Nanavati

Selection Criteria

Items will be selected based on the originality, creativity of the choreography, coordination, energy, performance quality and overall presentation.

General Guidelines

For the program to be as professional as possible, the following guidelines and policies have been instituted. These apply to most common situations. Guidelines requirements may be modified at the discretion of the Cultural Committee based on the perceived quality of the performance.

Portrayal of culture: Hum Sub aims to bring programs of the highest quality to an audience of diverse culture and ethnicity. Any program which portrays any culture, religion, community or language in any derogatory manner will not be accepted.

Repetition policy: Items performed between October 1st, 2015 and October 13th, 2016 can't be re-staged for Cary Diwali 2016. If any item is found to be in violation of this policy, the choreographer and the group will be disqualified to perform in the current and next year Cary Diwali event. The selection of any repeat items will be at the sole discretion of the Cultural Committee. Any such selection will be based on the perceived quality of the performance and its conformity with the Cary Diwali theme.

- Song selection: The track for an item may consist of a medley of up to a maximum of three songs. No song (including songs in medley) can be repeated during the Cary Diwali 2016 except if someone wants to do the entire item on one song (not medley), and the song is already part of a medley by another group, the group doing the full song can repeat the song. Remix of the same song is also considered a repetition. The group who sends its selection first will be assigned the song and subsequent groups will be notified by the Cultural Committee asking them to select a different song.

Minimum age for participants: The minimum age for the participant is 7 years. The performer should have turned 7 on or by August 20th, 2016.

Maximum entries:

- Maximum of 4 items – limiting only 1 each from Young-kids (7-9) and Pre-teens (10-12) will be accepted from the same choreographer/coordinator/dance school (irrespective of the location).

We would like to give opportunity to maximum number of choreographers. Your cooperation will be much appreciated.

The contact person is responsible for any communication with cultural committee and their group.

Suggested age groups:

Young-kids: 7-9

Pre-teens: 10-12

Teens: 13-16

Young adult/Adult: 17 and above

Mixing of age groups will be acceptable if the item requires it and the group looks cohesive in terms of quality and appearance.

TROPHY UPDATE: Trophies are available for purchase at the nominal cost of $7.00

Recommended Guidelines

For Dance Performance:

- Please select songs that are appropriate for performers' age group and Cary Diwali's family oriented audience.
- Traditional Indian dance style is preferred.
- Repetitive steps or dancing in the same spot should be avoided.
- Try to use variety in choreography and utilize the whole stage.
- The performance should move smoothly such that one segment flows into another. Dancers should face all sections of audience during the presentation. Keep spacing even and utilize all dancers in the group.
- Portray elegance, grace and charm. Please try and include captivating movements and facial expressions into the performance.
- At all times display enthusiasm and awareness of the audience during the presentation.

For Instrumental/Vocal with live instrument Performance:

- Instruments should be tuned before your item is announced. You will not be provided time to tune it on the stage.
- In addition to singing quality, attention should also be given to presentation of the song (stage presence) especially for solo/duet songs. Do not stand still while performing.
- At all times display enthusiasm and awareness of the audience during the presentation.

For Musical Dance Drama:

- Entry forms have to be submitted with a description of the item and story line.

- Number of entries and acceptance of the entries will be at the sole discretion of the cultural committee and will be based on the time availability, perceived quality of the item and the conformity with the theme.

Costumes:

- Traditional Indian costumes are expected for performers and please try to avoid black tights with tank tops.
- Costume should be appropriate to the dance style.
- Cultural Committee makes the final determination of the appropriateness of costumes.
- Give attention to details on costumes and footwear (if any).
- In case of any costume changes after the audition, please get the Cultural Committee's approval.

Music for Dance Performance:

Music will be accepted online in MP3 format and it should be submitted along with the Cultural Entry Detail Form. Song changes will not be accepted after Cultural Application Form closes.

Script/Participant Names:

- Script is required only for musical dance drama items.
- Qualified volunteers will announce the script for musical dance dramas, which describes the item.
- The script must be short and well thought out and is due on August 7th, 2016. Please know that the script is subject to revisions and editing by the MC to fit the limited time.
- Same names are spelled differently by different people. Please confirm with your participants how they spell their names.
- It is your responsibility to let us know by audition if any of your participants are performing in more than one item in Cary Diwali. We can't guarantee spacing of items to accommodate time needed for costume change after the audition.

Audition:

- Audition will be held on Saturday, August 20th, 2016 at Cary Senior Center Ballroom, 120 Maury Odell Pl, Cary, NC 27513
- Items are selected based on your performance during auditions.
- A sample costume or a picture of the costume should be presented to the cultural committee on the day of the auditions.
- All groups/items must attend the audition in order to be selected and the choreographer/coordinator who can give all the required information regarding the performance should be present in person for the audition, stage rehearsal and the main event.
- Performers must exit as soon as they are done with their items to help control the crowd at the time of the audition.

Stage Rehearsal:

- Stage rehearsal will be held on Friday, October 14th, 2016 at Koka Booth Amphitheater in Cary starting at 3 pm. Each group will be notified of their scheduled time prior to rehearsal day.

- It is mandatory for all groups to attend stage rehearsal and your absence will disqualify your entry. Each group must have at least 80% of its participants present.

Event Day:

- Each group must check-in with the stage manager 30 minutes before the performance time in the area assigned by Cultural committee.
- It is the choreographer’s responsibility to be present with the group backstage, ready to perform 15 minutes before scheduled performance time.
- Hum Sub will not entertain request for performance sequence change and will not wait if one of the performers has not arrived.
- Hum Sub allows community and family members to videotape and photograph this event. Therefore, we are not responsible for others sharing on social media.
